

The Doctors' Legal Responsibility for Medical Errors in accordance with the Saudi Laws and their By-Laws

This book has special importance because it deals with a vital issue, in which there is a diversity of opinions and it is directly related to mankind, who is the vice regent of Allah on earth, and made him responsible for the reclamation of earth, and endowed him with great blessings, such as good health; that is why we are instructed by Allah to protect the human soul. Allah also prohibit aggression against the human soul in any way. In this respect, many penalties and punishments have been ordained to protect the human soul from any harm. Accordingly, the doctors' responsibility are rapidly increasing due to the fast advancement in the field of medicine and support medical services; nonetheless, a doctor is expected to commit medical errors, so this book deals with some aspects related to medical errors and the legal prescribed civil protection in this respect.